Student Induction/Orientation Program for the incoming batch of 2024

As the initiation of stepping into the new chapter of academic journey, the SRM University, Delhi-NCR, Sonepat, has proudly organized Orientation/Induction program which is designed to help the incoming first-year students to explore, discover, and grow.

An orientation program is essential to help newcomers to adapt smoothly to a new academic or professional environment. It familiarizes with the institution's rules, facilities, culture, and expectations. The program reduces anxiety, builds confidence, and ensures a smooth transition into their new role. It also promotes interaction among peers, faculty, and staff, fostering a sense of belonging. Overall, orientation lays the foundation for academic, personal, and professional success.

The university has subdivision of faculties under the following categories:

- Faculty of Engineering and Technology
- Faculty of Science and Humanities
- Institute of Hotel Management
- Faculty of Law
- Faculty of Management and Commerce

All the Faculties organized the induction programs, as outlined in the Annexure, across all the programs for the year 2024, from August 23rd to August 30th, 2024.

This report provides the detailed schedule of how all the faculties welcomed and introduced the new students about the Academic Landscape, early Familiarity of Students about their faculty members and departmental facilities.

"The commencement of a new academic year is always a significant milestone, brimming with promise and opportunity. Welcoming new students into our community is a valued tradition—one that fosters a sense of belonging and sparks enthusiasm for the academic pursuit ahead." This report presents a comprehensive overview of a warm and engaging Orientation Program organized by the Faculty of Engineering and Technology, as outlined in the detailed schedule, from 20th August to 22nd August, 2025, to welcome our newest members, in order to help them seamlessly integrate into our vibrant academic environment.

Day 01: August 20, 2025
Venue: University Sports Ground

The first day began with a warm welcome to the dignitaries, faculty, parents, and the newly admitted students, marking the beginning of a new academic journey filled with excitement and aspirations. The inaugural session commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the distinguished guests, accompanied by Saraswati Vandana. This traditional gesture symbolized wisdom, knowledge, and the dispelling of ignorance. The atmosphere was further enlivened by a cultural performance presented by the students, reflecting the creativity and vibrant spirit of campus life.

Following this, the university extended its respect and gratitude through the felicitation of esteemed guests. The presence of Vice-Chairperson and Managing Director Ma'am Padmapriya Ravi, Director of Institutional Development Ms. Harini Ravi, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. Paramjeet Singh Jaswal, Registrar and Dean Academic Affairs Prof. V. Samuel Raj, and Director of Admissions and Outreach Mr. Manoj Madhavan Kutty, added grace and inspiration to the occasion.

The session proceeded with a series of formal addresses. The Welcome Address by the Director of Admissions and Outreach set the tone of the event, followed by the Vice Chancellor's Address, which motivated students to embrace their academic journey with dedication and enthusiasm. A Special Address by the Director of Institutional Development highlighted the importance of innovation and growth, while the Presidential Address by the Vice-Chairperson and Managing Director of SRM Group inspired students with her vision for the future.

A significant highlight of the programme was the distribution of the Chancellor's Scholarship Awards. Students excelling in academics were recognized with 100% and 75% scholarships, celebrating their achievements and encouraging the incoming batch to strive for excellence.

The inaugural ceremony concluded with the Vote of Thanks delivered by the Registrar and Dean Academic Affairs, who expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty, parents, and students for their presence and support. The gathering then united for the National Anthem, marking a dignified end to the morning session.

After lunch, the programme continued with the enrolment process, where students completed their admissions formalities with the assistance of the admissions team. This smooth transition allowed them to begin their journey as members of the SRMUH community.

The Orientation Programme 2025 was a blend of tradition, culture, academic inspiration, and celebration of merit. It provided the new students not only with a warm welcome but also with a sense of pride and motivation to begin their transformative journey at SRMUH.

Day 02: August 21, 2025
Venue: University Sports Ground

The second day of the Orientation Program for the first-year students was held on August 21, 2025, at the University Auditorium. The sessions were designed to familiarize students with academic systems, institutional facilities, support services, and opportunities for personal and professional growth.

The morning began with an introduction to the undergraduate and postgraduate academic rules and regulations, along with insights into the functioning of the R&D Cell. This session was conducted by Prof. V. Samuel Raj and Dr. Anjali Priyadarshini, who helped students understand the academic structure and research possibilities available to them. Following this, Mr. Vikram Barara gave a clear overview of the examination system, explaining the evaluation process and guidelines.

The next session introduced students to the activities of the Student Council, including NCC, NSS, Sports, and the Rotaract Club. This was addressed by Prof. M. Mohan, Mr. N. Mohan, Dr. Neelu Chaudhary, and Dr. Poonam Gahlot. Their presentations encouraged students to take an active part in extracurricular and community engagement activities. Prof. Vijay Kumar Singh then sensitized the students on anti-ragging measures, reinforcing the university's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging. This was followed by Prof. Renu Choudhary's talk on the Internal Committee and its functions, along with a joint session with Dr. Anjali Priyadarshini on Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and e-waste management, creating awareness on social and environmental responsibility.

In the afternoon, the sessions continued with a focus on career and skill development. Dr. Ruchi Kawatra introduced students to the university's collaboration with ACMA, highlighting industrial partnerships and facilities available at SRMUH. Prof. Satish Menon spoke about the Career Development, Training, and Placement Cell, encouraging students to prepare early for professional opportunities. International exposure was discussed by IDP consultants Ms. Anupama Ghai and Mr. Lalit, who guided students about global pathways and study abroad options.

Students were then introduced to the University Library by Dr. Sonu Kumar, followed by Ms. Priyadarshini's session on ERP services, which detailed the digital resources and academic management systems available. Innovation and entrepreneurship were highlighted by Dr. Mahamad Ahamad Mohiddon, who presented the functions of the Centre for Innovation, Incubation, and Entrepreneurship (CIIE).

The day concluded with a comprehensive overview of medical facilities by Dr. Neeraj Chandra, an introduction to NPTEL and SWAYAM MOOCs by Dr. Arpana Vibhuti, and a final session on hostel, IT, and transport facilities conducted by Dr. Upendra Singh, Mr. Prabhu, and Mr. Bala. These sessions ensured that students were well-informed about the support systems in place for their academic journey and campus life.

Overall, Day 2 of the Orientation Program was highly informative and interactive. It gave students a clear picture of academic policies, career prospects, extracurricular involvement, digital resources, and essential facilities, equipping them with the knowledge required to transition smoothly into university life.

Day 03: August 21, 2025
Venue: University Auditorium

The third day of the Orientation Program for the B.Tech. first-year students was held on August 22, 2025, at the University Auditorium. The sessions were structured to introduce students to their departments, faculty members, and academic support systems, while also addressing student well-being and career readiness.

The day began with a welcome address by Prof. Ranjit Roy, Dean of Engineering and Technology, who inspired the new students with his vision for their academic journey. This was followed by Dr. Preeti Tyagi, Head of Applied Science, who introduced the Faculty Coordinators and Class In-charges, ensuring students felt connected to their academic mentors from the very beginning .She gave the overview on importance of basic science for Engineering students.

A session on the Mentor-Mentee system was then conducted by Dr. Akshi, Dr. Ritika, and Ms. Ayushi, explaining how the system would provide students with continuous guidance throughout their academic program. Subsequently, Dr. Tulika Kakkar conducted a diagnostic test, aimed at assessing the preparedness and learning levels of students.

The morning concluded with an interactive session led by Ms. Prerana Rathi, Student Counsellor, on "Emotional and Mental Well-being." This discussion emphasized the importance of mental health, stress management, and seeking support when required, which was well-received by the students.

Post-lunch, the focus shifted to departmental overviews and faculty interactions. Dr. Pawan Kumar Singh (ECE), Dr. R. Sankar (ME), Dr. Deepika Yadav (EEE), Dr. Abhay Chaubey (CE), Dr. Anjali Priyadarshini (BME), and Dr. M. Mohan (CSE) each introduced their respective departments, highlighting academic strengths, faculty expertise, and research opportunities. This session provided the students with a comprehensive understanding of the diverse disciplines within the Faculty of Engineering and Technology.

The day concluded with a query-handling session, where the Dean (Engineering & Technology) and the Head of Applied Science addressed students' questions and clarified their concerns. The program ended on a patriotic note with the National Anthem, marking the close of Day 3.

Overall, the third day of the Orientation Program was both informative and engaging. It strengthened the students' connection with their faculty, provided academic clarity, and emphasized holistic well-being, thereby preparing them for a balanced and productive university experience.

(23rd to 30th August 2024)
Group A: Samavesh | Group B: Utthan

Venue: Room A509 5th Floor of New Academic Building

	Common sessions at Auditorium – Old Law Block

"While the initial excitement and enthusiasm set the tone, embarking on a new academic journey requires continuous inspiration, hope, and determination." The Faculty of Law proudly organized the first phase of orientation, Lex – Initium, for the incoming first-year students across all programs for the year 2024, as outlined in Annexure A, from August 23rd to August 30th, 2024. The start of a new academic year is always a momentous occasion, filled with promise and opportunity. Welcoming new students into our fold is a cherished tradition that nurtures a sense of belonging and ignites the passion for the educational path ahead. This report provides a detailed account of how the Faculty of Law warmly received and integrated our new students into our dynamic academic community.

Day 1 (August 23, 2024) – The first day of the student orientation on August 23, 2024, was dedicated to University Orientation, where the Hon'ble Chancellor, along with the guest of the day, Shri Sanjai Kumar, CMD of RailTel Corporation, Government of India, addressed the students, accompanied by other distinguished dignitaries, including the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor and Registrar. The day also featured the announcement of the Chancellor's Scholarship. After this session Prof. (Dr.) Vijay Kumar

Singh, Dean of the Faculty of Law, warmly welcomed both students and their parents, setting a positive tone for the day. The students were then introduced to the Head of the Department (HoD) of Law and other esteemed faculty members. Following this, Dr. Yatin Kathuria conducted an engaging session that captivated the students interest, which was further enriched by an insightful discussion led by Dr. Prateek Deol on the theme of 'Krishna and Law,' where he explored the profound relationship between spiritual mythology and legal principles, emphasizing the relevance of law throughout history. To conclude the day, Prof. (Dr.) Vijay Kumar Singh recommended Coursera Audit Courses to the students, particularly highlighting "Learning How to Learn" by Barbara Oakley and "Academic Skills for University Success" from The University of Sydney, encouraging them to utilize the upcoming weekend to complete at least one of these courses.

Session 3 (11:30 AM - 12:30 AM)

This session underscored the critical role of research in the legal field, introducing students to essential legal databases and various research centers at SRM Faculty of Law. These centers specialize in ADR, Law & Technology, Constitutional Law, Corporate Law, Competition & Insolvency, and other crucial areas. Emphasizing the importance of developing rigorous research skills, the session highlighted how they are fundamental to success in legal practice and scholarship. Mastery of these skills enables effective analysis and application of complex legal principles in real-world scenarios.

Session 4 (2:00 PM – 3:00 PM)

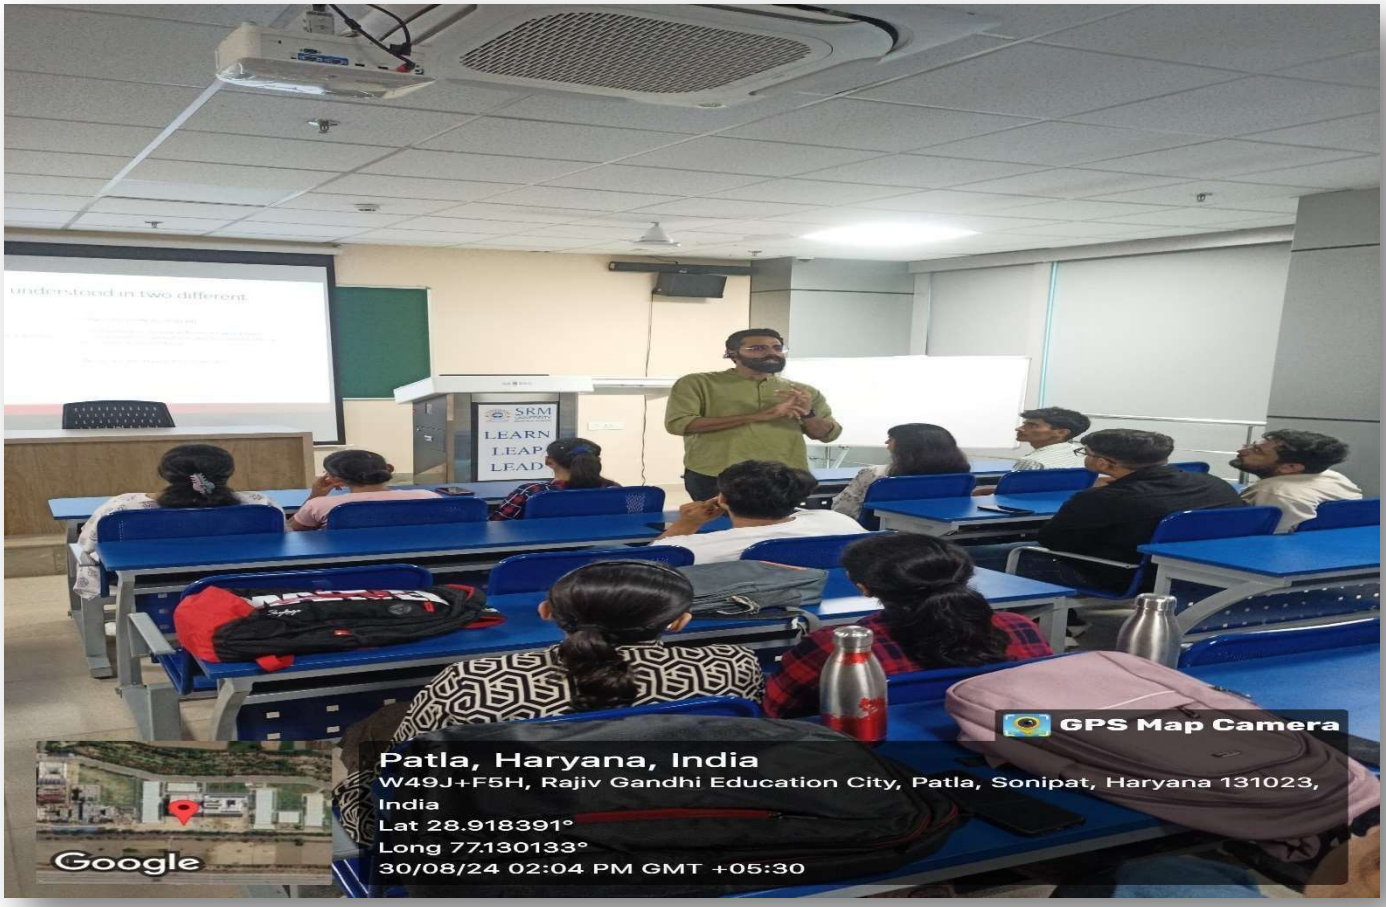
Led by Md. Saleem and Dr. Yatin, this session explored the Constitution, differentiating between the Constitution, constitutional law, and constitutionalism. They emphasized the importance of constitutionalism in maintaining a just and balanced state, offering students a deeper understanding of the society.



Dr. Yatin Kathuria addressing students on KYC: Know your Constitution – Discovering our Foundation

Session 5 (3:00 PM – 4:30 AM)

Students engaged with thought-provoking material through a lecture play by Michael Sandel, followed by a screening of the film Article 15. The film offered a practical lens through which students could examine concepts of justice and law. Dr. Vijay Kumar Singh, Dean of the Faculty of Law provided insights and interpretations of key scenes, making connections to legal principles and their application in real life.
