Our Inspiration – The Founding Chancellor

Dr T R Paarivendhar

Dr T R Paarivendhar is the Founding Chancellor of SRM University, Sonepat Haryana. A visionary educationist and philanthropist, Dr Paarivendhar founded the SRM Group in 1968, driven by a mission to create a powerful platform for knowledge, empowerment, and social upliftment. Over the decades, SRM has grown into one of India's largest and most multicultural educational conglomerates, offering a truly multidisciplinary learning environment to students and researchers from across the globe.

Under his guidance, the SRM Institute of Science and Technology, established in 1985, has grown into a prestigious centre for higher learning known for setting benchmarks in professional education. His early recognition of the role that quality education plays in nation-building helped set high standards for professional education in India. Under his leadership, SRM has expanded its footprint across the country.

Beyond his work in academia, he is also recognised for his public service as a Distinguished Member of Parliament, representing the Perambalur Lok Sabha constituency in Tamil Nadu. Deeply rooted in compassion and social commitment, Dr Paarivendhar believes in empowering the disenfranchised through education. He sees divinity in the smiles of the marginalised and has made it his mission to support meritorious yet underprivileged students by offering full scholarships, thereby enabling upward social mobility and dignity for the underprivileged.

Dr Paarivendhar's philanthropic vision stems from a deep-rooted belief that education is the most powerful tool for empowerment. His efforts have enabled countless students to improve their life standards and reclaim their dignity through access to world-class education. Respected widely for his humility, foresight, and service-driven leadership, Dr T R Paarivendhar continues to inspire generations of educators, students, and social reformers. His legacy is reflected not just in the expansive educational institutions he has built, but in the thousands of lives transformed under his guidance.

2. Academics

The curriculum for each program is designed with care keeping in mind the recent trends, demands and expectations of the industry. The ideals of NEP 2020, UGC, NITI Aayog, Skill India, Make in India, Digital India are reflected in the course curriculum. The process of developing the curriculum and the course content essentially takes into consideration the feedback of different stakeholders. The Board of Studies (BoS) meetings are important element of curriculum design and development where the Program Educational Objectives (PEOs), Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) are discussed and assessed, so that the curriculum can resonate the academic trends, market and industry requirements.

The primary objective of the curriculum is to make students responsible citizens who are capable of identifying, formulating and solving real time challenges and socio-economic problems. Each course content includes subjects such as, Human Values and Ethics, Professional Ethics, Soft Skills, Gender Sensitivity, Environmental Engineering, Pollution Control and Waste Management, Indian Constitution and Polity and others which inculcate a thorough understanding and appreciation of society, culture, human behaviour, and nature.

The emphasis on gaining hands-on experience through field/live projects/research project and internships are important aspects of the curriculum and thus, prepares the learners for their professional journey. Online structured feedback from stakeholders in a prescribed format is taken and analysed at Department as well as University level Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Accordingly, the syllabus of courses is designed, reviewed and the approval of the competent authorities is taken.

The University has a unique and well-defined system of assessing learning levels of the students. The University admits students from diverse background through a streamlined, fair, and transparent admission policy. To cater to a wide array of students and to ensure excellence in academic standards, the University has adopted a methodology for identification of slow learners (aspirants) and advanced learners (performers).

- ♦ Performance in the University Exam of the
- ♦ previous Semester Class Committee meetings to identify different levels of learners Performance in
- ♦ the Continuous Internal Assessment
- ♦ In-class observations by the subject teachers

SRMUH adopts a comprehensive multidimensional approach of teaching and learning which emphasises on student-centric and application-oriented pedagogy to achieve holistic development of students, to ensure and promote quality education and maintain high standards of teaching-learning. To broaden the student's horizon, the teaching and learning at SRMUH is not only restricted to the prescribed curriculum but is often supplemented with problem solving and participative learning methodologies. Guided by the vision of the University in mind, all faculty members are focused towards developing professional abilities among the students who can contribute technically and socially to the needs of the industry and society.

Experiential learning:

- ♦ Skill enhancement courses, practical courses, live projects comprises of around 22% of the credits earned.
- ♦ University organizes regular Industrial/Field visits and study tour for students across all disciplines. Students undertake internships during their summer/winter break.
- ♦ Apart from the experiments listed in the curriculum, students are provided access to the virtual-labs to explore beyond the curriculum.
- ♦ Regular seminars, webinars and guest lectures are delivered by experts, from academia and industry.
- ♦ Promoting a culture wherein students are encouraged to carry out their industrial projects/live projects.
- ♦ Legal Aid Camps and Moot Court sessions are organised to promote experiential learning

Adequate IT infrastructure and facility has been created by the University to meet the requirements of academics and administrative assignments. To address the need for printing and photocopying of documents dedicated space in the form of IT hub is set up. All the laboratories across all the disciplines in the University are equipped with the latest instruments and tools. An excellent common computer facility and research facility have also been created in the campus. The University has also established server rooms with continuous power back-up so that the need of 24x7 internet availability may be ensured for all through Wi-Fi and high-speed LAN connectivity throughout the campus.

SRMUH has a streamlined and well-organized examination system that governs assessment and evaluation across the University. The University keeps its examination system open to modifications for improvement, ensuring the system is fool proof to address anomalies or grievances (if any). The various rules & regulations, system & processes concerning to preparation, conduct of examinations and post conduct of examinations are controlled and monitored by the Examination Department of the University.

IPR Day Celebrations – April 26, 2024

April 26th 2024 is World Intellectual Property Day, chosen by the United Nations agency for intellectual property, the aptly named World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) as the occasion to raise awareness about the role of intellectual property rights in fostering innovation and creativity, leading to a more developed, visionary and sustainable future.

This date was chosen as the anniversary of the Agency, which was created on April 26th 1970. Every year, WIPO chooses a particular topic which reflects global challenges to highlight the central place which IP has in the modern world. Examples of past topics include IP and SMEs, Green Future and Digital Creativity. This year, the topic chosen by WIPO is

IP and the SDGs, Building our common future with innovation and creativity. The SDGs are the Sustainable Development Goals adopted by the UN which constitute 17 pillars towards a better future for people and the planet, each focusing on specific issues to be tackled, ranging from access to education to protection of the environment. 6. Finance and Accounts

The University Finance Committee plays a pivotal role in ensuring the optimal utilization of resources. The primary sources of funding include tuition fees, hostel fees, transportation fees, CSR funds, research project grants, alumni donations, consultancy revenue from faculty members, and grants from various NGOs. Additionally, the University received grants from esteemed institutions such as Siemens, ACMA and Bosch for the establishment of the SRM Siemens Centre of Excellence, ACMA Centre of Excellence and Bosch Industry-Academia Collaboration Centre.

For each CSR grant received, a separate ledger account is created to ensure proper management. The process for fund utilization is transparent and streamlined, with departmental-level procurements handled by the Purchase Committee. The committee's recommendations are then sent to the Vice Chancellor for approval through the Registrar.

A considerable share of the revenue is allocated to the salaries of both teaching and non-teaching staff. Additionally, substantial funds are dedicated to campus maintenance, research promotion, admission outreach activities, and academic endeavours such as purchasing lab equipment and consumables and organizing conferences, seminars, and faculty development programs. The University also earmarks part of its annual budget for the acquisition of books, journals, laboratory equipment, stationery, postage, printing, and photocopying services.

SRMUH has implemented a comprehensive system of internal and external audits to guarantee transparency and adherence to the University's objectives and established procedures. Financial transactions are conducted online through the ERP, ensuring an efficient, fair, and transparent system. The internal Audit Committee, consisting of a team of professionals, performs continuous audits of the University's financial transactions to ensure streamlined and accurate payments.

The following parameters are meticulously monitored: statutory payments to government offices (including TDS, GST, Provident Fund, etc.), salary disbursements, vendor payments, student fee payments, monthly bank reconciliations, voucher verifications, and the physical verification of fixed assets. The University has appointed the audit firm M/s B. Purushottam & Co. Chartered Accountants to audit the books of accounts and prepare financial statements following the norms defined by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. This firm deploys a team of highly qualified Chartered Accountants to scrutinize all transactions for their propriety. The external auditors rigorously review all books of accounts, analyzing receipts and payments in line with applicable auditing and accounting standards and statutes to ensure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements. An external audit was conducted for the financial year 2023-24.
